

Premieres in 2014

visit show page

The Bridge (Season 2) | A woman is found murdered in the middle of the Øresund Bridge – right on the border between Sweden and Denmark. The Swedish and Danish police are called to the scene and find what at first looks like one murder turns out to be two. The bodies have been brutally cut in half and made to form one single corpse. This double murder is just the beginning of a series of crimes committed to call attention to various societal problems. The Swedish and Danish police find themselves in a race against the clock in a deadly showdown. Recently adapted for U.S. audiences by FX, the BAFTA-nominated series, “The Bridge” is distributed by ZDF Enterprises. Ten (10) episodes.

Premiered January 25, 2014

visit show page

The Only Way is Essex (Seasons 7-11) | Life imitates soap; real people, real lives—maximum entertainment! In season seven of this BAFTA award-winning series, with their glamour most certainly still intact, those young and beautiful Essex partygoers are turning into entrepreneurs. With their sights set on success, the ambitious bunch still find themselves caught up in emotional fireworks and jealous rages as they fall in and out of love with each other in England’s fake tan capital. “The Only Way is Essex” is produced by Lime Pictures (“Big Brother,” “Hollyoaks”) and made available on Hulu and Hulu Plus from ALL3MEDIA International. Ten (10) episodes.

Premiered April 9, 2014

visit show page

Deadbeat | The first co-production between Hulu and Lionsgate Television, is a 10-episode half-hour supernatural comedy directed and executive produced by Troy Miller (“Flight of the Conchords,” “Arrested Development” through his banner Dakota Pictures. Co-created by Cody Heller and Brett Konner (“Wilfred,” “The Inbetweeners”), and produced by Dede Gardner, Jeremy Kleiner and Sarah Esberg at Brad Pitt’s Plan B Entertainment, the subversive comedy stars Tyler Labine (“Reaper”) as Kevin Pacalioğlu, a hapless but gifted medium who will go to any lengths to help New York’s ghosts settle their unfinished business. Brandon T. Jackson (“Tropic Thunder”) plays his best (and only) friend, Roofie. Cat Deeley (“So You Think You Can Dance”) stars as Camomile White, a glamorous celebrity medium who is Pacalioğlu’s rival and nemesis, with Lucy DeVito (“Melissa & Joey”) starring as her loyal assistant, Sue. Ten (10) episodes.

Premiered April 24, 2014

visit show page

Moone Boy (Season 2) | International Emmy award-winning, critically acclaimed family comedy “Moone Boy” is about a young boy growing up in a chaotic and creative household in late 1980s Ireland. Martin Moone and his not always helpful imaginary friend Sean Murphy, played by Chris O’Dowd (“Bridesmaids”) get into more trouble in the second season of O’Dowd’s semi-autobiographical comedy. It’s now 1990 and things are changing in the Moone household with the prospect of a new arrival in the family and blooming love for Martin. A Sprout Pictures, Baby Cow (“Gavin and Stacey,” “Mighty Boosh,” “Alan Partridge”), Hot Cod Productions and Grand Pictures production, “Moone Boy” is available on Hulu and Hulu Plus courtesy of BBC Worldwide North America. Six (6) episodes.

Premiered April 25, 2014

visit show page

Doozers | The animated preschool series DOOZERS focuses on four Doozer kids, a team of best friends who live in Doozer Creek, a community that is a wonderful blending of the fantastical, modern, and eco-friendly. Dubbed “the Pod Squad,” Spike, Molly Bolt, Flex, and Daisy Wheel bounce from one fabulous kid adventure to the next. The Pod Squad loves to DESIGN, CREATE, and INNOVATE. These Doozers are DOERS – they put their ideas into action! Inspired by the wildly popular characters from the classic Henson series “Fraggle Rock,” “Doozers” is a new CG animated series for preschoolers from The Jim Henson Company (“Dinosaur Train,” “Sid the Science Kid”) and DHX (“Yo Gabba Gabba,” “SuperWHY!”). The series is produced with assistance from the Nova Scotia Film Industry Tax Credit and with the participation of The Canadian Film or Video Production Tax Credit. Fifty-two (52) episodes.

Premieres May 28, 2014

visit show page

The Next Step | Dance like everybody’s watching. This reality-style teen drama follows the lives of a group of dancers at The Next Step Dance Studio as they attempt to win the regional dance championships. The tightly knit team of dancers train, rehearse and hang out together within a well-established social order led by star dancer Emily and the E-Girls, a band of dancers who are used to running the studio. A new girl joins the team, challenging alliances and social balance of the studio as the regional championships quickly approach. A Temple Street (“Orphan Black”) production, “The Next Step” is made available to Hulu and Hulu Plus by BBC Worldwide North America. Thirty (30) episodes.

Premieres June 1, 2014

visit show page

Fugget About It (Season 2) | When Jimmy Falcone, a former New York mob boss, is asked to whack his good old Uncle Cheech (who routinely spills mob secrets), he goes to his boss Don Gambini to plead his case and try to save his uncle’s life. When nothing comes of it, he politely throws Gambini out the window. Now with all of New York out to get him, Jimmy has no choice but to turn to the Feds and he and his family enter the witness protection program in small-town Canada. The Falcones are now the “MacDougals” and it’s not easy going from glorified gangsters to neighborhood nobodies. It’s a fish out of water story, except these fish are sharks. Distributed by 9 Story Entertainment. Ten (10) episodes.

Premieres June 15, 2014

visit show page

Rev (Season 3) | A BAFTA award-winning comedy series following the enormous daily frustrations and moral conflicts of an inner-city vicar Rev. Adam Smallbone, played by co-creator Tom Hollander (“Pirates of the Caribbean”). Big questions are asked of Smallbone and his wife Alex, played by double BAFTA-award winning Olivia Colman (“Broadchurch”), as they adjust to life as new parents at St. Saviour’s. A host of new and returning characters join the band of lost but loveable misfits in the parish, including Hugh Bonneville (“Downton Abbey”) and Joanna Scanlan (“The Thick of It”). “Rev.” is directed by Peter Cattaneo (“The Full Monty”), and is a Big Talk production (“Spaced,” “Hot Fuzz,” “Scott Pilgrim vs. The World”) made available on Hulu and Hulu Plus by BBC Worldwide North America. Six (6) episodes.

Premieres July 9, 2014

visit show page

East Los High (Season 2) | Welcome back to East Los High! 2013’s breakthrough Hulu drama returns hotter than ever as romance, sex, dancing and mystery once again fill the halls with a new cast of students at East Los High. Ceci (Danielle Vega) returns to coach the Bomb Squad, struggling to take the unruly dance team to state championships. Working as a single mom, Ceci faces new challenges with a hot new boyfriend who turns out to be more than meets the eye. Things get heated as mysterious turns of events make it another breathtaking year. Featuring an all Latino cast, co-created by Carlos Portugal and Kathleen Bedoya, “East Los High” is produced by Prajna Productions, The Alchemists, Into Action Films, and Population Media Center. More than 15 leading public health organizations advised on the scripts and content to address teen issues related to relationships and sexuality in a meaningful way. Twelve (12) episodes.

Premieres July 15, 2014

visit show page

The Hotwives of Orlando | A parody of one of the most popular franchises in reality television, “The Hotwives of Orlando,” takes you inside the uber-exclusive and glamorous world of six hot housewives livin’ large in Central Florida’s sexiest city, Orlando. The show follows a cast of ladies as they fight over pretty much everything except for their love of shoes, plastic surgery, and the pursuit of spending all of their husbands’ money. “The Hotwives of Orlando” stars Casey Wilson (“Happy Endings”), Angela Kinsey (“The Office”), Kristen Schaal (“Flight of the Conchords”), Tymberlee Hill (“Drunk History”), Danielle Schneider (“Upright Citizens Brigade”) and Andrea Savage (“Step Brothers”) with supporting performances by Kate Walsh, Weird Al Yankovic, Joey McIntyre, Stephen Tobolowsky, Paul Scheer and many more. The series is brought to Hulu and Hulu Plus by Paramount Digital Entertainment, the studio behind the Emmy-nominated series “Burning Love” and is produced by Emmy Award-winning executive producer Jonathan Stern (“Childrens Hospital”) and executive producer Paul Scheer (“NTSF:SD:SUV”). Seven (7) episodes.

Premieres August 4, 2014

visit show page

The Awesomes (Season 2) | An animated show for adults that combines the thrills of comic book storytelling with the irreverent and inspired comedy that is the hallmark of show co-creators Seth Meyers and Michael Shoemaker ("Late Night with Seth Meyers"). It is the story about the greatest superhero team in history, The Awesomes, and what happens after all the most powerful members leave. Season two is set to feature new supervillains and superheroes as the team takes on new challenges, which might include an unexpected love triangle, under the leadership of Professor Doctor Awesome ("Prock"), voiced by Meyers. Meyers and Shoemaker's friends from the comedy world will return to voice the team, including Ike Barinholtz (Muscleman), Kenan Thompson (Impresario), Paula Pell (Gadget Gal), Taran Killam (Frantic) and more. Season two will be executive produced by Meyers, Shoemaker and Broadway Video's Andrew Singer. "The Awesomes" is a Hulu co-production with Broadway Video ("Saturday Night Live"), animated by Bento Box Entertainment ("Bob's Burgers"). Ten (10) episodes

Premieres August 7, 2014

visit show page

Quickdraw (Season 2) | A comedy western set in 1875 centering on Sheriff John Henry Hoyle (John Lehr), a recent Harvard graduate, who brings the latest criminology and forensics techniques to the wild west town of Great Bend, Kansas. Season two of the procedural western comedy starts off with a bang, literally, promising more laughs, romance and gun-slinging action. Cole Younger is back and badder than ever, but hot shot Hoyle aims to stop him. Deputy Eli (Nick Brown), saloon owner Honey Shaw (Allison Dunbar), outlaw Pearl Starr (Alexia Dox) and undertaker Vernon Shaw (Robert Clendenin) return. The series is co-created and executive produced by Nancy Hower and John Lehr ("10 Items or Less," "Jailbait") and co-executive produced by Keith Raskin ("Key & Peele," "The League"). Ten (10) episodes.

Premieres Fall 2014

A Moody Christmas | After living through the "Moody Christmas," brace yourself for a second season of eight uniquely Moody occasions with Australia's most dysfunctional family. Over the course of a year, "Moody Family" captures a snapshot as the Moodys come together in spite of each other, between tangled love affairs, a divorce and a new romance. The AACTA award-winning series stars Patrick Brammall ("The Strange Calls"), Jane Harber ("The Secret Life of Us"), Tina Bursill ("Offspring") and Darren Gilshenan ("Top of the Lake"). A Jungleboys Production ("Elegant Gentleman's Guide to Knife Fighting"), "Moody Family" is available on Hulu and Hulu Plus courtesy of DCD Rights. Eight (8) episodes.

Premiere Date TBD

Flavor Quest | As a restaurateur for over 30 years, celebrity chef and TV personality Michael Chiarello has become obsessed with ingredients. Chiarello takes his obsession on a thrilling journey around the globe in Flavor Quest, a six-episode half-hour series sure to tempt your wanderlust...and your taste buds. Each episode features Chiarello in a different corner of the world, searching for rare and exotic flavors, exploring new cultures and unearthing myths and legends. Then we'll take it to the kitchen where Michael will create a feast with all of the ingredients he gathers on the scavenger hunt of a lifetime. Flavor Quest is produced by Defy Media. Six (6) episodes.

Premieres May 2014

The High Road with Mario Batali | The High Road with Mario Batali is a series of short films starring renowned chef, restaurateur, author, and television personality Mario Batali. Each episode features a celebrity or interesting personality who joins Mario for insightful, candid conversation and a unique adventure to unexpected locales in Mario's beloved New York City. Season 1 features Rachael Ray, Mike Myers, Christine Quinn, Frank Bruni, Jimmy Fallon, Julianna Margulies, Liv Tyler, George Stephanopoulos, Fred Wilson, Isabella Rossellini, Gabrielle Hamilton and Anthony Bourdain. Twelve (12) episodes.